

CREATION CASE STUDIES

Case 1

Tyler is in science class. The teacher is presenting the theory of evolution. She is teaching that man started out as an ape and then gradually changed until he became a human. Tyler believes the Bible is God's Word. The Bible clearly teaches that God created Adam and Eve. Tyler knows not to be rude to the teacher or to get up and leave the class. How can Tyler acknowledge God as his creator?

Case 2

Jennifer had two softball games yesterday and then went to a friend's house to spend the night. They stayed up late watching movies and talking. It's now Sunday morning. She knows her parents want to pick her up on their way to church, but she is so tired. Jennifer is thinking about begging her mom to let her go home and go back to bed. How can Jennifer honor God as her creator?

Case 3

Sean is small for his age. All his friends are a lot taller and bigger than he is. In fact, Sean's younger brother Kyle is two inches taller and weighs more than him! He's the smallest kid in his class. Even most of the girls are taller than him. Sean is too embarrassed to go to school. He wishes he was just like everyone else. How can Sean honor God as his creator?

Case 4

Julia has a pretty singing voice. Today Julia got to do her first solo at church. She did a great job, and she felt good about singing so well. Several people came up to her after church and told her what a wonderful singer she is. How can Julia honor God as her creator in this situation?
