Welcome Richard [Wientzen, to our texting message group of 7.]

Your brother-in-law has been and will be an immeasurable blessing
to all of us in his Church family.

In the midst of his current trial,
he remains a beautiful window into God's Grace.

I am reminded through his example of an observation from Charles Spurgeon:

"It is easy to sing when we can read the notes by daylight; but he is the skillful singer who can sing when there is not a ray of light by which to read, who sings from his heart, and not from a book that he can see, because he has no means of reading, save from that inward book of his own living spirit, whence notes of gratitude pour forth in songs of praise".

Such is the example of our brother
Mark - a skillful singer unto the Lord.

Blessings in Him,
Glen (attending Deep River Baptist Church, Pastor: Kirk Hagert,

This poem, Easter of 2017, was recorded as he recited it to me, and I felt this was worthy of printing:

The Cross

Great drops of blood He shed at Gethsemane,
"If possible take this cup away."
But there was no other way
To pay the debt of sin for humanity.
Now whosoever will may come
To a home with God above.
Now eternal bliss is available
To those who have faith in this 'deal.'
For without the shedding of blood
There is no remission of sin.
Put your faith in Jesus, then-
God looks at you as if you've never sinned!
All mankind, no matter what race or nation,
Everyone is invited in this invitation.
At communion we remember the body broken for us
And the blood shed for remission of our sin.
He conquered death with a body incorruptible,
So now we can too but only through His strength.
Guilty of love in the first degree
So He had to go to Calvary.

-- Mark D. Rockefeller, Deep River, CT; April, 2017

"Read about it in Matthew 28. The first two to see Him were women, remember that!"
The first two individuals to see Him in His incorruptible body were women. And also, no matter where you trace the spread of Christianity, through out the globe, wherever it went, women were lifted to a higher level."

SCRIPTURE: Mat 28:1-20 Now after the Sabbath, as the first day of the week began to dawn, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb. (2) And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat on it. (3) His countenance was like lightning, and his clothing as white as snow. (4) And the guards shook for fear of him, and became like dead men. (5) But the angel answered and said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. (6) He is not here; for He is risen, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. (7) And go quickly and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead, and indeed He is going before you into Galilee; there you will see Him. Behold, I have told you." (8) So they went out quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring His disciples word. (9) And as they went to tell His disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, "Rejoice!" So they came and held Him by the feet and worshiped Him. (10) Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell My brethren to go to Galilee, and there they will see Me." (11) Now while they were going, behold, some of the guard came into the city and reported to the chief priests all the things that had happened. (12) When they had assembled with the elders and consulted together, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers, (13) saying, "Tell them, 'His disciples came at night and stole Him away while we slept.' (14) And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will appease him and make you secure." (15) So they took the money and did as they were instructed; and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day. (16) Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, to the mountain which Jesus had appointed for them. (17) When they saw Him, they worshiped Him; but some doubted. (18) And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. (19) Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, (20) teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.
